“ *Cathy was a good friend, great Girl Scout Leader, and an amazing person. I just learned of her passing today. I have missed her and thought of her often since our paths diverged. I regret losing touch. I send my heartfelt condolences to all, especially Gary and Amanda.

“ How ~ how do I begin and where do I end to share with y'all just how wonderful, loving and beautiful, inside and out, this marvelous woman was to all of us who loved and adored her? I've known her my whole life it seems for I was 12 when she came into my life and became the wife to my brother Gary Jones. The best sister-in-law; the best daughter-in-law; the best mama; but most, the best wife to my brother that a man could ever have!! I'm so honored and blessed beyond words to have had the privilege of being part of her life for 50 years. I miss you terribly. I love you deeply. Thank you for my memories for I will, as you know, remember them in love and humor and make sure that all who are in hearing distance will hear the stories of you and Gary just the way they were told to each other. I can still hear you now with that sweet, country, slow, southern drawl telling Gary....."No Gary, it wasn't 3:00 pm that you went to the store, it was 2:00 pm." Then Gary says, "No, Cathy, it was 3:00". You, knowing you are right continue....." No, Gary, it was 2:00". Gary finally realizing he's wrong, admits to the love of his life....." Well, yes Cathy, you are right, it was 2:00 pm". Oh, how I'm going to miss those little, loving debates y'all would have either in front of me or while I was on the phone with one of y'all for it didn't matter where y'all were, he had to be straightened out with the truth! Y'all were just too cute together. He's lost without you. He misses you terribly. He's grieving in the right way and for that, I thank you from heaven for I know you are beside him daily to help guide him through the toughest time of his life. He's doing ok, not only from the love y'all shared together but because he knows you are home with God and he knows he will reunite with you one day in the distant future for I'm sure you will be his guide to show him the way through the tunnel and into the light. Try not to worry for I will do my best at taking care of Gary while holding his hand through his "New Normal" life that lies in front of him now. I love you! I miss you! Tell the family.....well, you know, the normal "I love them" stuff. I told him to look for signs from you so if you will, please make those signs easy for him to find. I'm a knower as you were. Love you much my sweet, darling, gone too soon, sister-in-law!! The best there ever was!!
