“ *Dear Kristina,
We are sorry we cannot attend Katy's funeral service as we are currently in Texas. Please know that had we been at home we would certainly have come to offer our you our support and love in person. Just know we are thinking of you.

“ Katy was a good hearted lady who loved God, her family and her friends. She was such a beautiful soul. She was the best mother in law that a daughter in law could ask for. She was so pretty, such a good cook, devoted to family and a blessing to all who knew her. She is now face to face with Jesus, her husband Dennis, her son Dennis, her daughter Cindy and so many other loved ones who have gone on before. Prayers for comfort and peace, for Tina, Mike, caleb and all of her family and friends as we all remember her with love. 🥹❤️💙🙏🕊️🌹
