“ Well she loved her football Saturday's ! Loved her girls. Loved her papa and me "me" Hollod. She knew if she needed anything- she could and did call them! She also loved the father of her children Trey very much even though they had there differences. God rest your soul Kelsey. Your earthly family will always remember the good things about you. Your one in a million! We miss you dearly! Signed your daily family that really knew you. Fran
