“ Dodge and his brother JL were big influences on my brother Fran and me. When they returned from the service, they decided to go to college. They were the first ones in our family to do so. It made such an impression on my dad that we were expected to go to college as well. We owe them a huge debt of gratitude.

We used to talk several times a week. I'm going to miss our phone conversations.

“ Mr. McCroan was what I called my Palm Tree specialist. He would always talk to me at Town Hall about how his palms were growing and tried to teach me. He was such a pleasant person to be around.

“ I will miss my Uncle Dodge so much! I loved talking to him and hearing him tell me how much he and aunt Kathyne loved each other. Even when he was away they talked several times a day. He said something like this: he was looking for a mother in law and in order to get Grandma Ocie he married the only daughter she had left. My heart is broken. I no longer have any uncles on this earth but he's with Aunt Kathyne and that makes me smile. Rest in peace my friend and my Uncle Dodge. I will miss you.
Love you,
Susan
