Kevin John Crowell, age 57, of Deatsville, Alabama, born and raised in Lynn, Massachusetts, passed away peacefully at home, on July 2, 2025. Born to Estelle Crowell and the late Clyde Crowell, Kevin was a beloved son, brother, uncle, great-uncle, and friend. His sense of adventure, generous spirit, and quick wit touched the lives of everyone who knew him. Kevin is survived by his mother, Estelle Crowell of Hudson, New Hampshire; sister Linda Bucknell and brother-in-law Paul Bucknell of Holly Springs, North Carolina; sister Nancy Herald and brother-in-law Gary Herald of Hudson, New Hampshire; sister Ruth Towle of Deatsville, Alabama; and brother Kenneth Crowell and sister-in-law Jackie Campbell of Sharpsburg, Georgia. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and great-nephews, who lovingly called him “GREAT” Uncle Kevin. He was preceded in death by his father, Clyde Crowell, and his brother, Thomas Crowell, paternal grandparents Enos Crowell and Carrie Crowell, and maternal grandparents Clarence Roberts and Mary Roberts. Kevin lived an adventurous life and spent several years in Alaska, a place he especially loved. He had a love for 1970s music and was known for his ability to sing along to nearly any song from the era, usually while grilling or baking (especially his famous cheesecakes). A devoted “dog dad,” Kevin had a lifelong love for the Boxer breed and cared for many over the years, including Jack, Joe, and Talia. Throughout his life, Kevin held a variety of interesting roles, including warehouse staff, hotel staff, dog sled musher, vehicle hauling driver, oil delivery driver, and more. He was also a very skilled handyman. Always eager to lend a hand, Kevin was known for helping family and friends with home renovation projects, car repairs, and was a reliable source for advice of all kinds. A Celebration of Life will be held in New Hampshire at a later date. In honor of Kevin's love for dogs, especially Boxers, memorial donations may be made to the Southern Magnolia Boxer Rescue at <https://southernmagnoliaboxerrescue.org/>. “ I am a traveler of both time and space to be where I have been to sit with elders of a gentle race. This world has seldom seen we talk of days from which they sit and wait when all will be revealed

“ I have gone back and forth on what to say so many times. I'm forever grateful you were in my family's lives. You were an instant family member from the day we met you and I'll cherish those moments forever. I'll miss you picking on me and calling me Lynn (because you were the only one I'd ever let get away with calling me that) and joking on the phone with my Dad. The last time I heard your voice was right before my Dad had surgery making us smile, laugh, and always ending the conversation with a joke or see you soon. I did not know that would be my last time but happy it's such a sweet and fun memory. Love and miss you Kevin. Until we meet again, take care of all those dogs and pups up there buddy 🐾🐾

“ There really are no words to express how much I will miss my friend. Kevin was more family than a friend, my boys loved their “uncle “ Kevin. There wasn’t a soul you didn’t touch with your music, jokes, pranks (god I hated the glitter bombs, but they always made me laugh), your cooking, but most of all your genuine love for life and people. I’m grateful for you and your friendship
