

Mr. Lamiko Jemario Oliver

February 28, 2019

To everything there is a season: Ecclesiastes 3:1 On February 10, 1991 in Montgomery, Alabama God created a child in His image and Blessed Duane Jemario and the late Shantay Shelette Brown with a son, which they called LaMiko Jemario Oliver.

No weapon that is formed against Thee: Isaiah 54:17 Through life journey as a child Lamiko united with Jackson Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church under the leadership of Reverend James Christians, through his youth/adolescent year remained there under the leadership of Reverend Jerry Jones and his adult life under the leadership of Reverend Greg Harris.

He was an outgoing person, mischievous at times, caring person...always trying to help others when he had nothing, witty... making you laugh when you didn't really want to and in his environment outside of the church the spirit of and the word of God was shown. He was very active in the Christian Education Department under Reverend Mamie Jackson.

He graduated high school at Conventry Academy and received a degree as a Pharmaceutical Technician and was on the Presidential Deans List from Virginia College. Throughout his career life, he was a welder.

I have finished my course: II Timothy 4;7 On Thursday, February 28, 2019, God came and hand picked a beautiful flower from his garden, for" Life is But a Stopping Place."

Lamiko was preceded in death by his mother Shantay, his grandparents James and Jane Marie Taylor.
