“ Larry was my stepdad when I was a child. I loved him as my father, he was the best part of my childhood. He treated me and my sister, Teresa, as if we were his own. He taught us how to ride our bikes and played at Morter creek to cool off on the weekend. His loving family made my childhood memories. Hazel taught me how to crochet and I have passed that to my daughters and granddaughters. Laura taught us to sing, I could go on and on with sweet, beautiful memories. He was a great man then and I am sure he always was.
