“ My condolences to Barbara, and the children and grandchildren. Larry was such an outstanding God fearing man. It’s hard for me to find the right words to express my love for Larry. He was my nephew, yet we grew up like brothers. We spent so much time together in our early years. Lots of adventures and misadventues! We had the most fun together. We were inseparable. He was my best man when I got married. Time and circumstances kept us apart after we both got married and had children. But I have always loved him like a brother. Praying for Barbara and his family to have peace and comfort. Love You!

“ Brother Walker has been such an inspiration to my husband Louis and I for over 5 years now. We met at our church Spirit Walk Ministries. He encouraged, gave us Godly wisdom and prayed for us. He truly was a blessing. His wise words will stay in our hearts till we meet again one glad morning. Thank you for your unconditional love and kindness. Bro. Larry, I can only imagine the smile on your face when you saw our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
