“ Rick and family, Allen and I were so sad to hear about Jane. She was so loving and sweet. I remember when we came to your home in Deatsville years ago and she made us red beans and rice. It was so good I could have eaten the plate. There is no doubt in anyone's mind that she is now with the Lord.

“ I only knew Mrs. Patterson (she gave me permission to call her Jane) for a short time. I will miss our time on Sunday mornings. I know in my soul she was a child of God. She shared her fig preserves with me, and if you don't believe she was a caring , loving, and giving person, explain to me why she would give a lady(my wife) whom she had never met a Christmas present. If Rev. Patterson ever wonders how she is, I can her her say " "you will will just have to wait and see"
