“ *Sorry for your lost my friend. I've known of your wife for the 17 years that me and you worked together. I had the pleasure of meeting her once or twice, but the one great meeting I will never forget was when she shared her scrapbook with me of all the Raiders games she attended with her farther and you. I think I enjoyed that more than she did. Such great times she shared with me and I want to say thanks for that.
Rest well angel.*

“ It's hard to share just one memory of Lisa. She was involved in so many memories when I was a child. At one time she was the softball coach for Emily and me. For years she drove us to school every morning and I would hang out at Emily's house in the afternoon. When it was time for me to go home Lisa would watch me walk to the corner at night to make sure I made it home safely. That tells you what type of person she was. She was genuinely kind and funny and the biggest Raiders fan. Her laughter would light up a room. My prayers go out to Ron, Emily, and the rest of the family during this difficult time.

“ To My Friend Lisa, The Biggest Raiders Fan Ever, You will be Greatly Missed. You are one of my Oldest and Dearest Friends. We've had so many fun times together and days filled with laughter. I miss the days when we worked and ate lunch together, you helped make the days go by better with the jokes. You always brought a Big Smile everywhere you went. I will truly miss you and I love you always.

To Ron, Emily, and Family....I will keep you in my prayers and I am here for anything you need ever. I love you all.

My heart is heavy as I write this. Lisa was a great mother daughter and wife. She was loved by all and she spoke her mind. I know she will be missed greatly. Ron, Emily it will be difficult but it will get easier. Pauline you were the best mom ever, she loved you greatly. To her brother Ken, I know you will miss her. Prayers and love for all. Amanda, I know you will miss your sister, I feel like she was your greatest cheerleader wanted you to be well. She is no longer suffering and up in heaven with all who loved her. She will look down on all. Love and prayers for all.

“ Lisa I'm gonna miss you something awful. I miss our phone calls, our FaceTime moments early in the morning. You are my best friend and you're my sister. We told each other things no one else knew. You would give the shirt off of your back, your very last dime and your very last bite of food and never asked why, you just did it. I'm gonna miss knowing if I needed you, no matter the time or the circumstances, you would be there. So for now, fly high my sister, till we meet again. I Love You always will. You and all our secrets and memories will live in my heart. Till we meet again.
