“ This is the last picture I took with Granny. It was only a few months ago. While I was visiting her, she made a pot of coffee and told me stories of how she was the first woman to own a bar in Montgomery. She was a strong woman and seemed to love everyone. She didn't judge and was always positive and supportive. While visiting her, she also told me that missed my Dad everyday and she couldn't wait to see him again. I know she is with him now along with other family. I will miss her greatly.
