

Mrs. Lynda Lee Shaw Bishop

January 14, 2023

Mrs. Lynda Lee Shaw Bishop, of Coosada AL, passed away peacefully on January 14, 2023, after several months of illness. She was born December 6, 1943, to Carl Travis and Louise Shaw. Lynda spent most of her life as a resident of Charleston MS. She graduated from Charleston High School in 1961, and later obtained degrees in cosmetology and registered nursing. Lynda's relationship with God was the most important part of her life. She devoted her life to spreading the gospel and doing God's work. She taught Sunday school for many years, coordinated VBS programs, had a prison ministry and nursing home ministry, visited the sick and grieving, donated resources, and volunteered for many charities over the years.

Lynda leaves behind her soulmate Emmett Blair (Gus) Bishop of Coosada, AL. Her two adoring daughters Stephanie (Mark) Bruno of Germantown, TN, and Lindy (Joe) Denman of Millbrook, AL. She leaves five grandchildren Christopher Bishop, Blair (Heath) Bagi, Braiden (Carter) Sheppard, Drache Denman, and Collyn Cercone. She also leaves a great grandchild Beau Bagi. She leaves two siblings Terry (Hershel) Christian of Sardis, MS and Douglas Shaw of Charleston, MS. She also leaves many cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, and her devoted caregiver Vivian.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her son Christopher (Rusty) Bishop, and two brothers J.W. Shaw and Warren Shaw of Charleston, MS.

Lynda's celebration of life will be coordinated by Womble Funeral Home in Charleston, MS on Saturday, January 21, 2023. Lynda adored children and worked in pediatric medicine for many years. Please make any memorial donations to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN <https://www.stjude.org/donate>.

“ Lynda and I worked together as nurses, but the greatest joy I remember is praying together. Lynda was such a precious influence on my life. I loved that her grandson called her Nanyah and when my grandchildren were born, I taught them to call me Nanyah also. Lynda was a special friend to my family. Gus, Stephanie and Lindy, my heart is with you. Lois Rooker RN
