“ My family and I extend our sincere condolences and prayers in the loss of Ms. Mamie. I have known her and her children from my childhood. She and my Mama were very good friends and often spent hours on the telephone chatting and laughing with one another. She was a very nice lady and had a very nice family. She was also a neighbor and good friend to one of my elderly cousins. She was a definite asset to our neighborhood. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

I pray that God will continue to comfort and strengthen all of you. "Earth hath no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal." May God bless each of you. Love to you all.
