“ *I just heard this week of Wayne's passing. It made me very sad but then I realized what a blessing it was to have known you. Some people touch your life and your heart and you definitely did that. I will miss our long silly phone conversations about the latest gossip (haha) or the Christmas lights that you loved so much. Wayne Flowers, you are already dearly missed. Prayers for your sweet family. Michelle, you and your sweet mom can call me anytime. Sincerely,
Angie D. (your insurance lady)*

“ I met Wayne and Katie when my son was a teenager climbing fool's hill and I was a single parent. They took him in and made him a part of their family...they became best friends...always there for each other. Wayne was one of a kind with a wit unsurpassed. I grew to love and respect him - May he Rest In Peace

“ *I first me Wayne in 1981 when I played football for the team he was coaching. From that time on I was treated like one of his own kids as Joey and I have been closer than brothers from then on. Wayne was a man with one of the biggest hearts and enough love to share with everyone he ever met. I will forever miss him and remember all he has taught and done for me though out the nearly 41 years. May God bless Katie and the family as they deal with their loss! I'm here in any way I can help. God bless you Wayne.
Thanks for everything, I'm proud to have been your friend.*
