Sissy was one of my first friends. We were together as children for many years as we grew up next door to each other in Forest Hills. Sissy was precious to me as a friend and her love of life was gift to us all. Sissy and I have reconnected a few times through the years and recently decided to plan a visit this summer. I texted her in March about our plans for June and I did not get a reply. I was stunned when her sweet daughter gave me the sad news. Sissy was one in a million with a heart of gold. Rest in peace, my sweet friend. You will be greatly missed. All my love to you.
