“ Mr. Paul was a great person. He always had the biggest smile on his face. He was so full of love for all his family and friends. He meant so much to my daddy and I know the both of you are having a big reunion by now. Thank you Paul for being my friend and for the love you showed us. My deepest sympathies to the Powell family.

“ Paul always had a smile on that face no matter how tired or stressfull the day might have been. He always tired to help out someone if he could and always asked about our kids (those babies) he would say.. You will be missed Paul , even if we didn't see you much just here and there. Those times always stood out if even for a few minutes. You will be remember by many for your Hard Work and Gentle Soul..
