“ Mike, my heart is hurting so bad right now!! I keep hoping that this is just a bad nightmare that I’m gonna wake up from. 😭😭 you and I have always had a special bond/connection that we could never explain. I’m gonna miss our talks that we had, and the laughs that we shared. Life will not be the same without you!! I’m gonna miss you soooo very much!! You will always be in my heart and memories. I love you forever my dear Cousin!! May you Rest In Peace and give everyone a hug for me!! 🤗❤️❤️😊😊😭😭🙏🙏

“ Mike,
I never met you face to face, but my love grew through conversations with you. Your voice will be missed ..through the laughter, I could see the smile, feel the love of kinship. You will always be a part of my beautiful memories...I love you dear cousin,

“ I saw Mike a few days ago at the Smokehouse in Millbrook. We hugged and talked until our orders were ready. He tried to get me to follow him home to see Belinda but I had been in Birmingham all day and needed to get home. We hugged and said I love you and went our separate ways never dreaming we would never see each other again. My prayers are with Belinda and family. Love you!
