“ Memories: I remember sitting with you in the closet at Patty & Chuck's old house, while B.J. was outside the door trying to scare us. My avoidance of scary movies began with you - You, Tara & I watched a VERY scary movie when we were about 5 & 7 years old. Afterwards, we drew crosses on Post-it notes & stuck them all over our bodies to keep away the evil :) We were so innocent & unaware of precious those times were.

My heart aches for everyone you leave behind, especially your girls. It doesn't seem fair that you had to face so many challenges on this earth & endure the pain of battling cancer multiple times. But you allowed The Lord to shine through you. You praised Him in the storm. You knew this is not your forever home. I can only imagine what you're experiencing now, meeting our Lord after a faithful earthly life. How pleased He must be to have you home, pain free. Your strength impacted me in so many ways; ways that I'll hold on to forever. I love you Michelle. Until we meet again...

But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body. - Philippians 3:20-21
