“ My Mother My Best Friend!! How I will go on day after day without you being a part of my every day life I can't even imagine. One thing makes me strong knowing you are in a better place and you made me a strong person too step up while you went to rest.. I love you so much and I will cherish all our precious memories we made❤️

“ Me and my wife had the opportunity in meeting this wonderful woman at a Xmas party she was a real hoot. We fell in love with her she had us all laughing.
It is hard losing a mother or friend, the only positive thing is that we know her soul is in the kingdom of our lord where she is healthy again and happy, we are the ones who suffer but will join her once again one day. (Praying for the family). Al and Cindy Mills
