“ Am still trying to accepted what has happened we've been the best of friends for so long. There wasn't ever a day we didn't call each others phones. Which I find myself doing now I know and believe God is still able. Friend, I'll always cherish all the good memories we had and we never had any bad ones, all good ones. Since this happened I couldn't go to sleep. I find myself thinking about all the funny things we did over the years but I cried harder laughing. Now what am going to do now when ready I'm ready to ride out shopping and all. You were right there and I thank you. I am glad we got the chance to tell each other how much we appreciate each other for being the loyal friends we were to each other. Real friends are hard to come by which I did find that in you. I try to stay busy so I won't think about the crazy moment of memories we've had. Rest well my dear friend, Natosha R Lewis BKA "Chelle" to some and "T Nice" to others. True best friend gone but never forgotten. - ps- save a spot for me until we meet again
