“ Mac, Stephanie, Dona, Jimmy, Johnny, I am so sorry for your loss. We all loved Pete, he was a mess. Even though I am no longer in the family, ya still are my family. Dona, Norma, Jimmy, and all of our kids had some great times up there in those hills in Prattville. I remember all the cookouts and the good times shared. I know Pete is in a better place, he is a new person now and is looking down on all of you. May God give each and everyone of you peace and know that he is by your side. I know you will miss him, as I will too.

“ How does one begin to tell someone she has known and loved all her life good bye. Our lives together will always be intertwined by the two best gifts anyone ever gave me, Our Children. Without you Stephanie and Mack would never have been a possibility, thank you, my sweet, sweet Pete. I will always love you, and I always knew where my place was in your heart. Rest now, and catch some fish with Pat Wayne. Dance a jig with Teddy when you see him with his new legs, kiss my momma, daddy and my sweet brother Robert. I love you Pete....Norma Jean Martines
