“ Ralph was a wonderful bowling partner. Every Thursday he would ask how I was doing. In the beginning I would say just off. He would then start witnessing to me and asking if I go to church. I laughed. He asked I knew our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I said enough. That's all it took. He made sure in a matter of 4 weeks I knew for certain who Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior was and knew for sure I would have a place in glory. After that on Thursday, he would greet me asking how I felt. I would let him know my light was shining bright and my soul is happy. Thank you, Ralph. I will always love and be thankful for you showing me the way.
