“ Reeta Maye, was a great friend and sister. Meet her when we both worked at the Jovon Inn in Selma. Then I meet Neeta. We were all pretty young and enjoyed our life's as young adults. The thing I will never forget was how she never told anyone she was pregnant until it was time for her babies to be born and she never looked it until the end. She loved her babies. I don't know anyone that did not love her. I'm going to miss her until I see her again in Heaven. ❤️

“ My deepest sympathies go out to the family and friends of Reeta Pugh aka “Maw-Maw.” She was so much more than a friend for more than 50 years. She was one of my amazing sisters and that’s the way I introduced her and Neeta. She was a thoughtful, caring person, loved and admired by so many and will be missed by all that were honored to know her! My heart is broken, and I will never quit thinking about her and all the wonderful memories we shared, especially in her/our favorite place, called the Country. If I ever needed to talk to someone or be comforted, she was always there for me. No MATTER the time...I could call, and she would answer!!!! I will always cherish our times together and hold them close to my heart!! She is finally with her God, parents, grandparents, brother and more loved ones in Heaven. She will suffer no more! May you finally Rest In Peace my Dear Sister/Girlfriend/Therapist.
Love, Janis

“ There is nothing to say that would express how I feel about losing my mother. I'm very grateful to have been there these last terrible months that we can never get back. Grateful for my brothers, my Aunt Nene and many others. We will share this hardships forever - and we will never be the same. Love you forever, Mama.
