

Rhonda Lynn Wilson

November 9, 2017

Rhonda Lynn Wilson, a warm and generous woman who found joy in serving Jehovah, caring for her family and helping other people, died peacefully in her home November 9, 2017 at age 55.

Rhonda was the embodiment of a selfless person, making it a habit to do more for others than she did for herself. She was always ready with a warm smile and a word of comfort, even when she was the one who needed encouragement.

She only had one child of her own, but she was a mother figure to so many. Her hard work enriched the lives of numerous people. If someone needed help, she was the first to arrive and the last to leave.

Rhonda was born May 1, 1962 and grew up in Billingsley, Ala. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses at age 18 on November 8, 1980. She faithfully served Jehovah, most recently in the Westport Sign Language congregation in Montgomery alongside her husband, David, and daughter, Desiree.

Rhonda set a fine example of faith until her death, remaining courageous and speaking with others about the Bible's promise of a time when suffering and tears of sorrow will be gone from the earth forever.

She battled multiple recurrences of cancer until finally losing her life to the disease. Her life was too short, but she is now safe in Jehovah's memory and awaiting His promised resurrection.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David Wilson, and her father, Clyde Cleckler.

She is survived by her daughter, Desiree Wilson; mother, Mavis Cleckler; brother and sister-in-law, Troy and Reba Cleckler; and several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Her memorial service is scheduled to be held Saturday, November 18 at 2 p.m. at the Westport Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 112 Greenleaf Drive, Montgomery, Ala. Brother Aaron Ellis will officiate the service. Brookside Funeral Home directing.
