“ Dick and Barbara have been close friends of mine since we first met in Port Angeles, Washington in 1963 and our little ones became childhood playmates. We never lost touch and I was fortunate to have them again in my same town of Pensacola for a number of years. I grieve over the loss of my friend...I have loved that family for many years. Glad I have decades of memories to cherish and more to make with Barbara as she navigates this next chapter. Will miss Dick's sarcastic humor underpinned with love and intelligence.
