“ Bob was my cousin. My paternal grandmother was his mother's sister. I have not seen him since I was a kid. That's unfortunate when family ties are aren't maintained. Still, although far apart physically and mindfully, I loved him. Sympathies to the family. I know he will be missed. Rest in Peace cousin.

“ I only knew Mr. Bob from the recycling center. He was a man of few words but I always tried to speak when I went. One memory where we talked a few sentences, ha, was when he got his new truck. It was beautiful and I asked him to show it to me. He was visibly proud and gladly opened doors and talked of its comfort.

Not sure what we'll do without him there, it won't be the same. Condolences to the family during this time of remembrance and reflection. Cindy and Tom Tennimon, Deatsville

“ The John Family (Evelyn, Joan and Karen), wishes to express their sincere condolences on the passing of Mr. Brown. He was a true gentleman and friend, who would help anyone and didn't mind sharing his vast amount of knowledge (especially about gardening). The flowers and vegetables and fruit trees, will truly miss his caring and devoted attention. Heaven got a heck of an angel. RIP.
