“ Bob was my older brother and friend. We shared many good times together with his family and mine. The past two years were very dibilating and painful for him. He is at rest now with his lovely wife Joanne and son Bobby. We love him and will miss him. Sister Maureen McNulty and daughter Kate Foster.

“ Every memory of Bob is special but one was more special than others. Bob and his siblings and I stood on an unpaved road outside the home of our grandfather. We looked up at the sky to see a dazzling display of Aurora Borealis. The colorful northern lights danced across a star-filled night. We watched in amazement, as little as we were, children of universe. We had never seen the heavens so inspirational, so alive, so dazzling. Now when I look up at a starry starry night, I will see one more light. At sunsets, standing on a Florida key, I will think of the beauty of a life so kind and humble. Though we met too few times as adults, Bob was always with me in my fond memories of childhood. Rest in peace you beautiful soul.
