“ *I had not seen Bob for many many years except for our grandmothers funeral. Bob was 13 years my junior so when Peter and I were in our late teens and early 20's Bob was just a 7 year old kid. But we got to see bob on and off over business trips, his to California and mine to Toledo Ohio. We always got together on those trips. I do remember when I was twenty or so on a visit to Waynesboro we all went to the farm where peter kept his horses. I had never ridden a horse in my life. We all saddled up on horses with English Saddles, with nothing to hand on to. We were just trotting along when I asked peter " How do you make these things go faster?" Peter said kick here in the Ribs. That was s big mistake. the horse started running and ran under every tree in the pasture with me hanging on to the horses mane. then the horse calmed down and trotted back to the starting place.
The whole family was laughing but I did not think it was so funny at the time.
I bet Bob is still laughing.*
