Ross Steven Jordan

"Buddy" to those who loved him most

Ross Steven Jordan, affectionately known as "Buddy" by his close family and friends, was born on August 22, 1944, and peacefully passed away on September 6, 2025, at the age of 81.

Ross leaves behind a legacy of love and devotion through his eight children—Susan, John, Robert, Steven, Paul, Mary, Kenneth, Lynda and their mother Janys—as well as his siblings, Max, Randy, and Joyce. His family was the pride of his life, and his love for them was evident in every sacrifice, every act of service, and every smile he shared.

After graduating from high school, Ross answered the call to serve his country by enlisting in the United States Navy as a proud Seabee, stationed in Anchorage, Alaska. Following his honorable service, he returned home to Montgomery, Alabama, where his strong work ethic and mechanical skill led him to build a life centered around hard work and perseverance. From starting his own small truck and tractor business, to his years repairing heavy equipment with Southern Frame and Alignment, and later his long career with Union Pacific Railroad in California, Ross dedicated himself to his craft. Even in retirement, when he returned to his beloved Alabama, he carried that same spirit of determination and service.

Ross's life was defined not only by his work but also by his faith. As a devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he gave freely of his time and talents, always willing to lend a helping hand. Whether serving on church farms, contributing to welfare projects, or sharing his faith through missionary work, Ross found great joy in blessing the lives of others. His kindness, humility, and unwavering faith will be remembered by all who knew him.

Ross loved his family, his faith, and his community. He will be deeply missed but fondly remembered for his quiet strength, generous heart, and the love he poured into those around him.

Services will be held on Friday, September 19, 2025, at the LDS Chapel located at 2200 Cobbs Ford Road, Prattville, AL 36066. A private viewing will be held at 8:00 am, followed by a public viewing at 9:00 am. Funeral services will begin at 10:00 am. Afterward, family and friends are invited to gather at Calebee Presbyterian Church Cemetery for the graveside dedication at 11:30 am, and then return to the chapel for a luncheon to share memories and fellowship.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests contributions be made to the American Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS.org) or to the LDS missionary fund, causes close to Ross's heart.
