“ To you Sara, one of the best friends I have ever known. I am going to miss your spunk and love for life. We did not always agree, but you brought so much joy to my life. If it had not been for you, I would have never known about Archibald, Crump Center, Sassy Sister Group, and so much more. We shared some wonderful trips together and I could hardly keep up with you!!! May you enjoy your Heavenly Home and being free from any pain and suffering. Till we meet again one day!!! Will be praying for you sweet family you left behind!!

“ Grammy,

As much as we miss you and as much as you will be missed, the memories of "Sara B" will continue to live on. You had a passion for your life and the people you loved. It only seems right to celebrate your life with happy memories, funny photos, your sarcastic jokes, and honest words. I feel you in spirit and hear your voice daily. Calvin and I love you forever and will one day meet again. For now, travel the world, play your bridge, eat your sweets, and dance until your feet hurt.

*Love always,
Calvin and Brooke*
