“ Many of us have had the same friends for years but Sheryl had the same friends for DECADES. She still kept in touch with & visited with them. I am very glad to be one of those special people. I have known her for a little over 30 years. She has connected me and many other with friends and some with their spouses. She never met a stranger. I have lived, loved, laughed and cried over the years with her. The best way to honor her is to keep those friendships going and to always reach out to others. I am going to miss her tossing that head back letting out that laugh of hers that would make you laugh even if you didn't know what she was laughing about.

“ I knew Sheryl for the last 32 years. We’ve had nights out on the town, enjoyed dinners and parties, lived together, laughed together, cried together (often from laughing so hard), and most importantly we shared a wonderful friendship. Sheryl was a sweet, kind, and incredibly strong woman. It’s easy for anyone who knew her to understand the light that Kelly first saw in her so many years ago. I pray in time the memories I hold so fondly in my heart will settle in and fill much of the void that her passing has created there. Rest peacefully sweet Sheryl.

“ I met Sheryl over 35 years ago and we were roommates in our early 20's. We remained good friends over the years and I have MANY wonderful memories of times spent with her and Kelly. She was present during the major milestones in my life. She was kind, generous, and had a great sense of humor. I loved to hear Sheryl laugh. Her strength, courage, positive attitude, and unshakeable faith in the Lord during her difficult journey were inspirational.

Sheryl was greatly loved and will be missed by many. Thoughts and prayers for comfort and healing to Kelly and the family.

*Until we meet again my friend,

“ Sheryl demonstrated remarkable courage in confronting her illness. She was determined to fight for her life while never losing her faith in the Lord. When it became apparent that He was calling her home, she accepted it with grace and dignity.

We exchanged many lengthy texts over the course of her illness. She was invariably kind and thoughtful, optimistic and positive in her outlook. Her determination and strength of character were extraordinary. Ironically, the illness that took her life revealed her best qualities. All those who knew and loved her have suffered an immeasurable loss.

“ Sheryl and I became friends years ago. She was always so much fun, and the life of the party! She was a friend that cared. I admired her strength, courage, and her attitude.

I never heard her complain while she was sick.

There is a void in my heart, but I know she is well again in heaven. I hope to see my friend again one day!

“ Sheryl was loved so much by her family and friends. She was a dear friend to her close friends and referred to everyone that prayed for her as her prayer warriors. She had a wonderful personality and her sense of humor was huge. She loved getting together with her friends for dinner and last year went to an outdoor get together at Jackson Lake Island. She is now with our Lord, no pain and suffering. She will be missed terribly.

“ Remembering Sheryl and I sitting on the boat relaxing and enjoying each other's company while Kelly drove us all over the lake. I truly felt a strong love from her. I can honestly say I've never seen her without her gorgeous smile. She will always have a place in my heart. Until we meet again, my beautiful friend.
