

Mrs. Sue Reaves

October 2, 2022

Mrs. Sue Reaves, a resident of Wetumpka, AL, passed away on Sunday, October 2, 2022. Funeral services will be held Thursday, October 6, 2022, at 10:00 AM from the chapel at Brookside Funeral Home, with Pastor Michael Gibson presiding. The family will receive friends from 9:00 - 10:00 AM in the chapel. The family requests that everyone wear bright colors, preferably pink, in honor of Sue.

Mrs. Reaves was preceded in death by her father, Glenn Talmadge Kitchens. She leaves to cherish her memory, mother, Cheryl Reaves (RC); her loving husband, Ed Reaves; daughters, Crystal Bethea (Bobby), Cassandra Cloud and Savannah Morehead (Charlie); brother, Glenn Kitchens (Tanya); sister Robbin Harris (Mike); ten grandchildren, Tori, Trey, Caterina, Chasity, Harley, Haley, Skylar, Angel, Casey, Paisley and one great-grandson, Wyatt.

Sue never met a stranger, and everyone loved her. She always had a smile and usually a hug, when she saw you. More than anything, she loved her Lord, and her family. She never missed an opportunity to spend time with them. Watching her grandchildren grow, brought her to life. Sue became a "Pink Sister," in 2018, when she was diagnosed with breast cancer. She won that battle and was in remission for four years. Sadly, cancer returned and though she fought valiantly, it was more than her body could bear. She will forever be remembered as the Warrior that she was. The family wishes to thank everyone for the outpouring of love and support that has been shown during this most difficult time. They also want to acknowledge the amazing team of doctors and nurses at UAB, that took care of Sue.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Brookside Funeral Home, to help offset the cost of Sue's final expenses.

“ Sue was the most genuine and kind person ever. She never spoke a bad word about anyone and never indulged in the rumor mills. She loved her family and if you were a friend, she loved you as well. I will miss the out-of-the-blue calls for help or advice. But most of all I will miss her sweet hugs and her sweet soul. Please pray for her family because I know they a hurting deeply. We will miss you Ms. Sue. Ray, Stacye, and Kayla Carter Roberson.
