“ I will always remember when the girls were little I use to have my hair cut in a crew cut style and the girls would always say , Uncle Al let us rub your your head and they would laugh like crazy. Also remember when Aunt Linda use to baby sit you girls when you lived in North Olmsted. Sue you are only temporarily gone, as everyone will meet again and all will be well again. This life here on earth only prepares us for our eternal life. My prayers to your family and I will light a candle for you.

“ Sue was such a big part of my childhood memories. She is joyous with her father who was also taken at too early an age. I hope her memories stay strong with you until you meet again. Rest In Peace,
Sue
