“ I have many memories of Tom. I grew up on Cherry Street and his daughter is like a sister to me, to this day. He was a man on the go, a straight shooter, and a hard worker. Sometimes we got to ride along with him and help. I remember an Isuzu we looked long and hard for and although we didn't find it that night I'm 100% sure he tracked that bad boy down. He laughed loud and loved hard and he will be missed dearly but we will keep his memory alive and love him always

“ Tom and I met in 1993 or 1994. We dated off and on for several years and despite everything we remained very good friends. I will miss you dearly Tom. We will see each other again in heaven. 🥺

“ I used to be dad's right hand man when he would work. I remember the long drives for one car that may or may not be there. But that didn't matter. As long as we had each other and maybe a bug juice from the gas station, life was good. He also taught me the importance of brotherhood. Whenever my brother and I would fight, the one who started it would get a punch in the nose, a big hug, and then we'd say we loved each other. Afterwards, nearly everytime there was an argument, he would say and I quote, "No matter what, you'll always be brothers." I love you, dad. Rest easy.

He absolutely loved you, and he was so very proud of how smart you are. He always said, "He is so smart; you wouldn't believe it."

“ Years ago we would take Billy and Tommy Whaley camping. I think they lived on McDonough Street in Montgomery. I was Joan Burson then. I am Joan Partridge now. We lost contact with these boys. I am not sure this is the same Tommy. Regardless you have my condolences. They were really good boys.

Joan, this is indeed the same Tommy and Bill. I am Bill's wife and he has talked about you many many times!!

Brenda Whaley - September 01, 2021 at 05:14 PM

Hi Joan, this is Bill. This is the Tommy Whaley that you knew. We both had very fond memories of those times with you. I was visiting Tom in June and we were reminiscing about the times we would go camping with you and Gene. It is so good to hear from you!
