“ Uncle Tim, you were always so sweet and kind to me and everyone you saw. You always had a gentle spirit and I enjoyed being around you. Love and miss you dearly. Watch after my Dad up there, I'm sure you two are getting into trouble somehow lol. I love you! Jenny

“ To the family: “Weeping May endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.” Captain Hewlett exemplifies a life well lived. I worked alongside him as a Correctional Officer at Tutwiler Prison for Women and at Montgomery Women’s Facility where I was promoted to Captain, the position which had been previously held by Captain Hewlett. He loved Mrs Cathy and his family. If you ever got into a conversation with him he was sure to talk about those precious grandchildren, whom he loved dearly. He’s earned his rest. Rest well Captain!
