“ Wow it doesn't seem real. Seems like just yesterday you were teaching me how to train horses. You would let me come over and just ride a horse and even helped me train a horse that wasn't supposed to be ridden but you let me do it anyway. I always had fun when I would visit, and I can't even count how many times I called you to stay at your house cause other wouldn't let me. I will always be grateful for being your niece. See you again one day, until then, tell Nanny I love her and miss her. I know you will always be with us. Love you so much Uncle Billy!

“ When mom passed, our family chain was broken, the four of us tightened our chain and held on for what tomorrow would bring. Now, our sibling chain has broken, and we are once again, tightening the chain to brace for tomorrow.

It broke our heart to lose you, but you did not go alone, in death as in life you have a piece of your siblings with you. We celebrate that you are not hurting anymore from the scars of life and that you are with mom. Please hug her from all of us.

In life we had our ups and downs as siblings, but my love and support for you was and is unfaltering. I am happy you were my brother, and I will miss you.
