“ bill was one of the first officers that I worked with when I was new to the dept in 1990. I always looked forward to working with him because he always had many interesting stories to tell and lots of valuable info to pass on I ran into bill in nov and we stood in walmart for 30 min talking. he told me about his operation at that time. I will always remember bill. bruce lafogg

“ Brother Bill Haynes will be missed by many Masons and Masonic organizations. He was a steadfast and hard worker within the Scottish Rite with talent that others do not have. I personally valued his friendship as he "Raised" me in Masonry and helped me learn what Masonry really is. If I or the Scottish Rite may be of any assistance to his family, especially Pat, please do not hesitate to let me know. Bill Loerch, Secretary, Montgomery Scottish Rite
